Commandant's Corner....

Greetings Marines & Associates

Your Commandant has just returned from Connecticut Convention. It is interesting how similar and at the same time how dissimilar conventions can be. Great learning experience.

July 4th is fast approaching and it's time to get all those tickets sold and to the Paymaster. We will be drawing the winning tickets on July 4th at the Barracks at 13:00. I would like 5 helpers. If decent weather we can cook up some burgers & dogs after the drawing.

We still don't have a Public Relations Officer or Historian. And we still need a Roster Tender.

Life Membership is still a great idea.

In May we had two funeral ceremonies; Marine Towlson of Ware Det. and our own Marine Jim Hibert. Once again the 141 did what they had to do and did it well. Thank you for a job well done.

I will be attending the Massachusetts Convention in Hyannis from 06-08 through 06-11 and return for our Regular monthly meeting on the 12th.

The sign-up sheets for flag pin sales are on the counter waiting for you. June 16,17,18,

Semper Paratidis

John S. Rutovich, Commandant
